Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

Linda

Question: Many public health advocates are concerned that EPA is not committed to the new law, and charge that new deputy director Nancy Beck's close ties to the ACC will jeopardize the agency's ability to regulate toxic chemicals. I wanted to give the EPA the opportunity to respond either by email or through a phone interview. I am writing the story for the online news site, whowhatwhy.org.

Response:

Good morning Linda,

Any thoughts on the following? Is there a statement we could send?
